Two Receive LeadingAge PA Awards

Two persons received state awards for their involvements at Landis Homes. Ruth Johnson, who coordinates the Parkinson’s Support Group, received the award for Volunteer of the Year and Vice President of Operations Eva Bering received the award for Leader of the Year.

These Distinguished Service awards were presented to Ruth and Eva at the LeadingAge PA annual conference in Hershey, PA, on June 17. LeadingAge PA is an association of non-profit senior service organizations that advocate for public policy initiatives which support individual rights, quality care, equitable access, and reimbursement for seniors throughout Pennsylvania.

The Volunteer of the Year Award is given to an individual who has enhanced the quality of life of seniors through volunteer work for the benefit of the residents, member organization and/or the greater community. Ruth brought the support group to Landis Homes more than 25 years ago.

Ruth was recognized for her “tireless dedication and compassion whose greatest contribution is that of grass roots advocacy and community building within the Lancaster County community and surrounding areas,” according to the awards program.

The Leader of the Year Award is presented to an individual demonstrating excellence in management or governance accountability, is pro-active in quality of care to residents, and has played a pivotal role in overall operations leading to organizational success.

The presenter noted that Eva “is a true leader in every aspect,” and that she was recognized for, “her history of exceptional leadership and record of service, dedication and foresight.”

Eva and Ruth, along with friends, family and colleagues were hosted at a brunch following the award presentation, attended by distinguished award winners who won in additional categories.

“The support group is a way for me to help others,” said Ruth. “I am both surprised and humbled by this award.”
Ever Reaching Outward

Outreach into home and community based services is not something new for Landis Homes and the rest of Landis Communities. Before it was a buzzword in the field of aging services, Landis Homes was working as early as the late 1980s in areas of adult day services and later expanded to other areas connecting with the surrounding community.

Recently the work of two persons associated with Landis Homes was honored by LeadingAge PA. Each June, LeadingAge PA brings together more than 1,000 persons to Hershey, PA to share best practices, learn from experts in the field and to honor those who are leaders. This year, Landis Homes was honored to have both Eva Bering and Ruth Johnson receive awards.

The leadership Eva has given to the creation and continuation of support groups, Landis at Home, Adult Day Services, and to introduction of Pathways Institute for Lifelong Learning at Landis Homes shows this to be true. She is always looking forward to see where Landis Homes and the rest of Landis Communities can be making a difference in the lives of residents and clients.

Ruth’s work in coordinating the Parkinson’s Support Group that meets at Landis Homes has been instrumental in supporting families walking with this disease. The group gathers monthly to learn from experts, hear about new resources and share their experiences. Providing meeting space for the Parkinson’s Support Group is just one of a number of ways Landis Homes engages with the community far beyond the resident population.

Other examples of groups bringing people to the campus include the Memory Loss Support Group, Arthritis Aquatics classes and Pathways Institute for Lifelong Learning®. In addition, clients of Adult Day Services and the Children’s Learning Center also bring life, enthusiasm and occasionally their family members to Landis Homes.

Providing space and support to these groups helps grow our connections to the surrounding community. Many times, when I mention my work, folks respond “Oh, we come there to swim for our Arthritis” or “I love coming to your campus for Pathways Institute classes.” The interactions between these folks and residents at Landis Homes help both groups expand their worlds and grow engagement with each other and team members.

The new Campus Master Plan will benefit both residents and these community groups. Meeting rooms of various sizes and the new swimming pool will be appreciated by all. We are grateful for the insights, comments and support shared by many as we continue to serve residents, their families and the surrounding community in Lancaster County and beyond through the ministries of Landis Homes and the broader Landis Communities. Your prayers, suggestions and counsel are appreciated!

Board Transition

By John Eby, Landis Homes Board Chair

Jonathan Hollinger recently resigned from his position on the Landis Homes board to become President and Chief Executive Officer of Pleasant View Retirement Community. With 430 residents, Pleasant View is a continuing care retirement community, CCRC, like Landis Homes, located near Manheim, PA. Jonathan and his family attend the Lititz Mennonite Church. He is a certified Public Accountant and since the fall of 2013 served as treasurer of the Landis Homes board. We thank him for his contribution to Landis Homes and wish him well!
Heritage Watchers Begins its 20th year, 1996-2015

A new class of the Heritage Watchers will hold its first of nine sessions on September 3 focusing on “Memoirs, Life Stories, and Photographs.” With the first class held in the fall of 1996, this is the 20th year the classes will be offered.

The series of classes are designed to help persons explore their unique family histories. Participants may choose to take one class or to take the whole series of nine classes. The class meets on the first Thursday afternoon of each month from September to May from 1:00-3:00 p.m. Classes are held in the Harvest Room of Harvest View at Landis Homes, 1001 East Oregon Road, Lititz.

“Everyone is welcome, young and old, men and women and persons coming from many different regions and backgrounds,” says Joanne Hess Siegrist, who has led the class from the beginning. In recent years while some participants live at the retirement community, many others come from as far away as Philadelphia and Chambersburg, PA. It is truly intergenerational with ages of members spanning from 10 to 100 years.

While participants have no specific registration fee, there is a small suggested donation per class to cover the cost of printed materials. To receive a listing of the nine different class themes or for additional information: contact instructor Joanne Hess Siegrist at 717-656-6429 or jhs606@frontiernet.net. Information is also available online at www.landishomes.org or by calling Landis Homes, 717-569-3271, extension 3067.

Service of Remembrance Invitation

From the Pastoral Services Team

The annual Service of Remembrance will be held Thursday, October 8, 2015, at 7:00 p.m., in the West Bethany Chapel and Prayer & Memory Garden. It is a time to gather with others to remember our loved ones who have died.

The service begins in the West Bethany Chapel with instrumental music, providing a place of reflection and prayer. Prayers, scripture and words of comfort and assurance are offered. The service concludes outdoors in the Prayer and Memory Garden, where each person receives a candle to light and remember a loved one, through poetry, prayers and song.

Landis Homes residents who have died during the prior year are specifically remembered during this time. Anyone is welcome to attend this service to remember loved ones, who lived either on or off of campus. It is a time and place to remember, reflect and be comforted.
Men Baking to Benefit Others

For the past four years a men’s group at New Providence Mennonite Church gets together to bake cookies for Fellowship Day. The men use the church kitchen to have fun and support a good cause since the cookies are part of the chicken BBQ meals. The proceeds from these sales are used by the auxiliary for special projects benefiting Landis Homes residents. Pictured is Jim Dombach in 2014.

There are dozens of ways to volunteer for Fellowship Day. To find out about more opportunities contact Volunteers Services at 717-509-5409 or email volunteer@landishomes.org.
Landis Homes campus is bustling with preparations for Saturday, September 12. That is the annual Fellowship Day with benefit auction, chicken BBQ and children’s events. Quilters, artists, volunteers, technicians, auctioneers, bakers and grillers, are just some of the people finishing up projects or making plans for this special day.

The silent auction begins at 8:00 a.m. and the live auction will start at 9:00 a.m. In addition to quilts, artwork, gift baskets and antiques, the auction will include a number of unique specialty items: a May 21-28, 2016 stay for 4-6 people in a 5 star resort condo at Myrtle Beach, SC; a used car; a hard-to-find copy of The Earth Is the Lord’s by John Landis Ruth, and more.

Works of art this year come from many local artists including Julia Swartz, Liz Hess and Paris Llanso. A preview of the art and many other items will begin with a reception on the evening of August 4. Starting August 10, auction items will be featured on Landis Homes Facebook page and a link to online galleries of auction items will be available at landishomes.org.

The Share A Meal booth will open at 8:00 a.m. along with other venues under the big tent. The Market Place includes household items, handmade items and fresh baked goods. Many food options will be available such as hot dogs, fresh fruit, soup, subs, ice cream and beverages.

Events for children will kick off at 9:00 a.m. with WJTL’s live broadcast of “Kids Cookie Break,” with Lisa Landis. Other highlights for children will be a barrel train ride, a bouncing castle, wagon rides, petting ponies and face painting.

At 1:00 pm, the popular opportunity to “Fill the Gap” will be presented. The “Gap” is the difference between the average cost of care and the reimbursement of medical assistance for those residents who have lived longer than their financial resources. This year, the Fill the Gap goal is to raise $22,000 in 15 minutes.

The Landis Homes Auxiliary will offer chicken barbecue for purchase at the West drive thru (10:30 a.m. – 1:30 p.m.) or the Pavilion near the auction tent (10:30 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.). The cost is $6.00 for a half BBQ chicken and $9.00 for a complete chicken dinner, which includes ½ chicken, chips, roll, cookies, applesauce and beverage. The Landis Homes Auxiliary will contribute BBQ proceeds towards a special project benefiting residents and their families.

Robert E. Martin Sons Auctioneers will lead the audience in bidding on donated items. The net proceeds of the auction go to the Caring Fund, a benevolent program at Landis Homes. For more information call 717-569-3271 or visit the web site at www.landishomes.org.

Everyone is invited to add their special touch to Fellowship Day. Some areas of need are: items for the live and silent auctions, baked goods, volunteers, tent pole sponsors, matching bid challengers and patrons who contribute to cover the expenses of the event (ie. chair and table rental, sound equipment etc). A goal is set to have all expenses covered before the start of Fellowship Day so that all funds raised go directly to the benevolent care needs of residents.

Friends who contribute before August 21 will be listed as patrons in the auction booklet unless they wish to be anonymous. Gifts may be given online at landishomes.org or by calling the Advancement Office with credit card information. Persons may also send a check to Landis Homes, Advancement Office, 1001 East Oregon Rd, Lititz, PA. Please mark “cover benefit auction expenses” on the memo line. All charitable gifts are tax deductible and support the Caring Fund. Questions: Call (717) 509-5490 or email Alonna Gautsche Sprunger at asprunger@landishomes.org.

Benefit Golf Tournament Raises $57,500 for Adult Day Services

Congratulations and thank you to 243 golfers, 45 business sponsors, 18 contributors of door prizes, 22 patrons, and many volunteers who contributed to making this year’s Benefit Golf Tournament a success. The net proceeds of $57,500 represent a $12,000 increase over last year! The tournament benefits the Adult Day Services program and provides financial scholarships to eligible clients who would otherwise not be able to participate.

Faith Hoover, Director of Adult Day Services, expressed her appreciation for the generosity of the golfers and sponsors during a celebration dinner following each round. She shared some of the reasons clients enjoy coming to Adult Day Services. Frequently mentioned were the tasty meals and snacks and the relationships with caring team members. However, Faith also relayed the remark of one client who said with a twinkle in her eye, “I like to play Uno and hide the wild card!”

Families of Adult Day Services clients are blessed with the peace of mind that comes from knowing the person they love is safe and having a good day.

A fervent “thank you” goes to the sponsors, listed in the sidebar, for supporting Adult Day Services.

Student Artwork 2015 Selected

In May, Landis Homes announced Brianna Scheidt as their 2015 Art Student Scholarship Award recipient. Scheidt, a Lancaster Mennonite High School senior, was chosen for her digital painting which is titled “Self Portrait.”

“Brianna is a talented student who enjoys sharing her gifts,” says Kathy Ciaccia, art department director. “In class she presented a PowerPoint to teach other students the process she used to create her self-portrait using the computer.”

Brianna lives with her family and her dog, Junie, in Ephrata, PA. Her parents are Bill and Jo Scheidt, and her older sister is Erica. She is part of Washington Avenue Bible Church, where she sometimes sings with the worship band. She says, “One of my favorite things about my church is how supportive and encouraging everyone is.”

At Lancaster Mennonite, Scheidt played volleyball for five seasons, and was involved in three musicals: “Another Show,” “Godspell,” and “Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat.” Brianna also sang as a soprano in the school choir.

Each year since 1995, Landis Homes has selected a piece of artwork from the Lancaster Mennonite High School Spring Fine Arts Festival to become part of a permanent art collection on the retirement community campus. In return for the work, Landis Homes makes contributions to the Lancaster Mennonite School art department and to the student to help further their education. Brianna is the 21st student to receive this award.

Scheidt says, “This summer I’m planning to go back to South Dakota with my youth group on a mission’s trip, to the Chanku Waste Ranch. We will run a summer camp for the children ages 5 through 17.” She said the contribution “was an answer to prayer” and will go towards the purchase of her plane ticket to South Dakota where she can “spread God’s love to kids.”

Serving the World

The Mennonite World Conference Assembly is being held in July in nearby Harrisburg, PA. There are many ways Landis Homes residents served even prior to the opening on July 21. A group of woodworkers helped sharpen 2000 carpenter pencils by hand for the participants of the conference who will assist with local building projects. Pictured is resident Roland Yoder, standing center, with volunteers Wes Newswanger and Lowell Jantzi who together created several display pieces for the conference including this three-dimensional logo. Thousands of visitors, including many coming from around the world, will benefit from these volunteer endeavors.

League Volleyball Champs!

The Landis Homes Volleyball team won the championship match at Brethren Village in April! A series of league volleyball games were played between four retirement communities: Brethren Village, Garden Spot Village, Luther Acres and Landis Homes. Congratulations to the team for sportsmanship, skill and teamwork.

Art Reception Features Two Lebanon County Artists

A fall art reception will feature two watercolor artists who live in the city of Lebanon. Jennifer Martin and Joyce Miller will have an exhibit of their combined works with an opening reception on September 21.

Joyce and Jennifer’s families have been long time friends. They have painted together for years and say they encourage each other to cultivate their creativity. Both women are signature members of the Pennsylvania Watercolor Society.

Jennifer Martin and Joyce Miller show some of their recent work.

Jennifer Martin will be showing her works with subjects including birds, people and still life. Jennifer, who began her art study by using pastels, later moved to watercolor and has found she really enjoys the beauty of the transparent color.

She received art instruction from two private teachers. She is also a member of the Baltimore Watercolor Society and she currently teaches art privately. Besides painting she enjoys music and her family.

Joyce Miller began painting later in life and took her first beginners class in watercolor at Harrisburg Area Community College. A few years later she took a class in pastels, but found she preferred the watercolor medium. She is currently taking watercolor classes from Larry Lombardo.

She is also a pastor’s wife, and it was through her husband Daniel Miller’s role as a pastoral intern at Landis Homes that she first heard about the art galleries. Joyce is a grandmother of four as well as a part time employee at Jubilee Ministries. In addition to painting, her hobbies are reading and gardening.

Both women say they see their expression of art as a way to express the gifts that God has placed in them.

The opening reception, to which the public is welcome, will be held from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. on Monday, September 21, in the Harvest View lobby and galleries. The works will continue to be on display through October 2015. For more information, call Landis Homes at 717-381-3550 or visit www.landishomes.org.
