On June 6, the ribbon was cut on the most recent addition to the Landis Homes campus. Many gathered to mark the official opening of the Calvin G. & Janet C. High Learning & Wellness Center and new Crossings apartments. Those in attendance included residents, family members, donors, business partners, employees and neighbors.

“The vision of Landis Homes was nurtured long ago and was founded on a desire to serve aging adults and their families,” said Larry Zook, President/CEO. “Each of you are part of continuing this vision and strengthening the Landis Homes community.”

The new center, which is centrally located on the 114-acre campus, includes an indoor pool, fitness room and studio, bistro, hair salon, pharmacy, bank, art gallery, offices and classrooms. The top two floors in the 103,000-square-foot, four-level center hold 22 apartments. New apartment residents began moving in on May 21 followed shortly after by the opening of the aquatics and fitness center offering new services and classes.

The total cost of the project is $53 million and will include two more structures. Now under construction, these will bring 57 additional apartments which will open in late 2018 and spring of 2019. The Connections Capital Campaign raised over $3.4 million through 340 donations in both small and large amounts. Local business partners in the effort included RGS Associates, RLPS Architects, M&T Bank, BB&T Capital Markets and High Construction Company.

In closing remarks, Vice President of Advancement Beth Trout said, “We are grateful for each of you here today. Your love for and commitment to Landis Homes is beyond measure.”
In recent months it is impossible to drive on East Oregon Road and not notice the changes to the heart of the Landis Homes campus. The Crossings apartments and the Calvin G. and Janet C. High Learning & Wellness Center now rise three stories above ground. It is an exciting addition to our campus and is already becoming a place where residents, team members and people from the surrounding community gather to learn, to exercise, to enjoy good, nutritious food at the Owl Hill Bistro and to view the art on display in the Crossings Gallery.

The space also brings together many resident services into the heart of campus, including our PeoplesBank branch, Phoebe Pharmacy, Crossings Salon & Spa, Landis at Home office, The Quiet Place, and a resident business center. The High Foundation Auditorium and Crossings Meeting Room will have many uses including our Pathways Institute for Lifelong Learning® program. A number of staff offices are also consolidated in this new space, which will soon be more accessible to residents from all parts of campus.

While these changes are exciting, there are more to come. By the end of 2018, the bridge and walkways through the Crossings East apartments will connect the Cedar House of personal care to the 33 apartments of Crossings East and the west side of the campus. This will fulfill a longtime dream of residents and team members to be able to go between different levels of living and connect the east side and west side of Landis Homes without going outside into the elements. Construction is underway on the 24 apartments in Crossings West which is scheduled to open next summer.

As we grow into our new surroundings, I am humbled by all the support and excitement shared with me by members of the community. As I said at the grand opening, “While we don’t completely know what the organization will look like in the years to come, our mission to serve will always remain strong, guided by our values of Joy, Compassion, Integrity, Stewardship and Community.”
Two LeadingAge PA Awards Received

Distinguished Service Awards for 2018 were presented at the LeadingAge PA annual conference in Hershey, PA, on June 21. Dorcas Benner received the award for Caregiver of the Year for her work with Landis at Home, and a Landis Homes resident group, Friends of the Woods and Wetlands, tied for the Volunteer of the Year award.

LeadingAge PA is a trade association representing Pennsylvania’s not-for-profit organizations that provide housing, healthcare and community services primarily to seniors. Since 1963, the association has acted as the primary source for advocacy, networking and education for not-for-profit providers of services for older adults.

The Volunteer of the Year Award is given to a group or individual who has “enhanced the quality of life of seniors through volunteer work for the benefit of the residents, member organization and/or the greater community.” The Friends of the Woods and Wetlands stay well-informed of environmental issues and make suggestions regarding campus policies and practices, consistent with good stewardship of the natural surroundings.

This group of residents was recognized for volunteering time, talent and expertise on behalf of the flora and fauna on the 114-acre senior living campus. They were lauded as environmental education resources to both Landis Homes residents as well as those in the larger community.

They tied for this honor with Midge Coker, a longtime volunteer at Phoebe Allentown Health Care Center in Allentown, PA.

The Caregiver of the Year Award is presented to an individual “who provides excellent clinical care…while demonstrating leadership and a commitment to the field” of aging. Dorcas Benner, RN, of Willow Street, has 47 years experience as a nurse, with 19 of those years serving at Landis Homes and with Landis at Home. For the past 5 years, she has worked as the home care supervisor for Landis at Home, a home care service affiliate of Landis Communities, with offices on the campus of Landis Homes.

Benner and eight individuals representing the Friends of the Woods and Wetlands group along with friends, family and colleagues were hosted at an evening gala attended by other distinguished award winners who won in other categories.

“I feel privileged to receive this award for doing what I love to do,” said Benner. “By helping seniors maintain dignity in their lives, I am part of a great team of people in caring for others.”
Celebrating Individuals Who Make Fellowship Day Successful

Melissa Kalicicki, Annual Gifts Officer

Mim Noll prepares a Share-A-Meal brunch. Leonard Brunk makes handcrafted items. Roy Weaver assists in gathering donated items from local businesses and Barb Boyer volunteers at the food stand. These are just a few of the many persons who use their talents and gifts to help raise support for the benevolent ministry at Landis Homes.

Ways you can get involved include donating a weekend away, tickets to a concert, an antique or collectible, stitching a special quilt or becoming a patron.

Your patron gift can be directed in one of two ways:

1. Covering Auction Expenses

   While businesses and corporate sponsors help to underwrite the cost of the big white tent, patron contributions are needed to cover other expenses like tents, sound equipment, tables, chairs and stage. The goal is to have all expenses covered so that every dollar raised on September 8 will go directly to the Caring Fund.

2. Encouraging Bids

   Challenge bids, sometimes referred to as matching bids, spur others to generously bid higher on a carefully chosen item. After the auction, you will be notified of the sale price and if the item met the challenge bid. Your contribution will be welcomed at that time.

Thank you for using your talents and gifts to generously support Fellowship Day and help those who benefit from the Caring Fund. Your participation makes a difference!

To make a monetary gift, you may call with credit card information, make an online contribution at landishomes.org or send a check, payable to Landis Homes with “cover auction costs” in the memo, to: Advancement Office, 1001 East Oregon Rd, Lititz, PA 17543. Gifts made through these opportunities will receive a charitable receipt for the full amount of the contribution. If received by August 17, donors will be listed as patrons in the Benefit Auction booklet unless we are notified of a request to be anonymous. Items for donation may be brought to the Advancement Office, Monday through Friday, 8:30 am – 4:30 pm. For other arrangements, call (717) 509-5490 or email advancement@landishomes.org

Benefit Auction Website Available August 1

Visit landishomes.org and follow the link to the Auction Gallery for descriptions and pictures of items to be auctioned. New items will be added daily. A few examples this year:

- Original and limited edition artwork by local artists such as Christiane David, Liz Hess, Paris Wyatt Llanso, Velma Magill, Kyong Sill Shin, Suk Shuglie, Andy Smith, Julia Swartz, Freiman Stoltzfus, and more
- Handcrafts of wood, pottery, stained glass and textiles
- Vintage items and antiques
- Collectors’ treasures and sports memorabilia
- Quilts and wall hangings
- Specialty Items including a 4-night get-a-way to Williamsburg, VA, November 30-December 4 in a 2 bedroom deluxe condo.

Join the Fill the Gap Challenge

You are invited to join us September 8, at 10:30 AM and 1:00 PM, to fill the gap for residents in need of assistance. Despite the help of Medicaid, there is still a $151 gap per day that exists for many individuals. Your gift of:

- $1,057 fills the gap for one week
- $453 fills the gap for three days
- $151 fills the gap for one day

Two generous Friends of Landis Homes are helping us not only reach, but surpass, our Fill the Gap goal of $45,000. A $10,000 challenge gift has been promised when our combined bids reach $25,000, launching us to $35,000. Another $5,000 challenge gift will be given when we reach $40,000.

If you are unable to attend the Benefit Auction, you can still partner with us by making a gift online at landishomes.org or contact Alonna G. Sprunger, Advancement Events Specialist, at (717) 381-3580 or asprunger@landishomes.org.

Service of Remembrance Invitation

From the Pastoral Services Team

The annual Service of Remembrance will be held Thursday, October 11, 2018, at 7:00 p.m., in the West Bethany Chapel and the Prayer & Memory Garden. It is a time to gather with others to remember our loved ones.

The service begins in the West Bethany Chapel with instrumental music, providing a place of reflection and prayer. Prayers, scripture and words of comfort and assurance are offered. The service concludes outdoors in the Prayer and Memory Garden, where each person receives a candle to light and remember a loved one, through poetry, prayers and song.

Landis Homes residents who have died during the prior year (September 2017 – August 2018) are specifically remembered during this time. All are welcome to attend this service to remember loved ones, who lived either on or off campus. It is a time and place to remember, reflect and be comforted.
Fun, Sun and Golf

The Adult Day Services Benefit Golf Tournament took place June 1 at Foxchase Golf Course. Under a mix of clouds and sunshine, 241 golfers and 14 business sponsors and patrons participated, raising over $59,000 in net proceeds for ADS! That equals 819 days of service and helps provide scholarships to eligible clients who might not be able to participate in ADS without it.

Thank you!

Residents and team members of Landis Homes volunteered by taking photos, greeting golfers, passing out snacks and more. ADS clients packed the golfer goodie bags, including their famous “puppy chow” they prepared for each golfer.

Each contribution made the day extra special. Thank you to all who worked together to enrich the lives of the ADS clients and their families.

You can view the golfer newsletter with sponsors and winners, at http://www.landishomes.org/giving/benefit-events/golf-tournament or at the Advancement Office in the High Learning & Wellness Center. On Landis Homes Facebook page, you can view the fun ADS video that shows clients making puppy chow and holding up thank you signs, as well as photos of the special day.

“I was through the Lord’s encouragement and several God-incidences that I ended up volunteering at the Golf Tournament. Thankfully, the weather cooperated and I ended up really enjoying myself. Adult Day Services does provide a much needed service and I was glad to help!”

– Jean Bednar

“I enjoy helping with the golf tournament. I like to do what I can to support the people who are in Adult Day Services as well as their caregivers. I’m thankful to be healthy enough that I can.”

– Anna Grace Martin
In May, Landis Homes announced Jia Li as their 2018 Art Student Scholarship Award recipient. Li, a Lancaster Mennonite High School junior, was chosen for her still life in conte pencil.

“Jia spent so many after school hours in the art studio working on a variety of projects,” says Kathy Ciaccia, LMHS art department director. “She is a very dedicated student.”

Li is from Guangzhou China, where she says her family consists of her parents, a younger brother and their dog. A dorm student, Li, just completed her third year at Lancaster Mennonite School and plans to graduate a year from now.

“The best part of school for me is the art program,” says Li. “I have experimented with different materials that I never used before and have improved my skills a lot. I love art.”

Each year since 1995, Landis Homes selects a piece of artwork from the Lancaster Mennonite High School Spring Fine Arts Festival to become part of a permanent art collection on the retirement community campus. In return for the work, Landis Homes makes contributions to the Lancaster Mennonite School art department and to the student to help further their education. Li is the 24th student to receive this award.

New Administrator of Healthcare Begins

In early June, Danielle Martin, “Dani,” joined the Landis Homes team as the new Nursing Home Administrator, NHA. In this role she will be responsible for the coordination and delivery of programs and services within the skilled nursing houses. She will also provide direction for the campus supervisors, assessment coordinators and medical records.

Dani, with 27 years of healthcare experience, was most recently employed as the NHA at Penn State’s Health Transitional Care in Hummelstown. Her previous experiences in long-term care include serving as a Director of Nursing, Director of Quality and RN Case Manager.

She was born and raised in Lancaster County and currently lives in Bird in Hand with her husband and two sons. “When I am not working,” she says, “I enjoy spending time with family and friends, specifically with our camper or on the beach in Lewes, Delaware.”

Dani’s education includes receiving an LPN at Lancaster Career and Technology in 1993, an RN at Harrisburg Community College in 2006, her MSN at Walden University in 2014 and an NHA at York College in 2015.

“I am thankful to become part of the Landis Homes team,” she said. “I am enjoying getting to know and serving the residents and staff.”
Art Reception Features Local Photographer

An art reception will be held in the new Crossings Gallery on September 13 featuring Nick Wetzel, a photographer committed to capturing the beauty of the natural world that surrounds him. Nick grew up in Bucks County and currently lives in Mount Joy with his wife, Katie, and Australian shepherd pup, Finn.

Nick fell in love with photography as a young child and, with the support of his family and friends, has continued to develop his skills over the last several years. After high school, Nick attended Elizabethtown College where he studied chemistry and secondary education. Passionate about wildlife conservation and ethical photography, Nick’s subjects are never baited or lured and his photographs are exposed to limited processing. Two of Nick’s photos hang in the Owl Hill Bistro.

Nick has worked the last 8 years as a high school science teacher in Hershey, spending his breaks exploring the outdoors, expanding his understanding of nature and building his collection. Nick participated in his first art show in 2016 and is grateful for the continued opportunities he has been provided to share his work with the community.

The opening reception, to which the public is welcome, will be from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. on Thursday, September 13, in the Crossings Gallery located in the new Calvin G. & Janet C. High Learning & Wellness Center. The exhibit will continue to be on display through October 2018. For more information, visit landishomes.org or call 717-381-3550.

World War I Exhibit Opens August 19

Excerpted from a news release from Lancaster Mennonite Historical Society

A century ago, the United States had just entered “The Great War.” While many wholeheartedly endorsed this effort, there were persons who could not in good conscience be involved in the killing of other humans. Often at great cost, even including death in a few cases, they spoke through their words and actions of a different path.

“Voices of Conscience: Peace Witness in the Great War” is a traveling exhibit developed by the Kauffman Museum, North Newton, Kansas, which remembers the stories of people of faith who opposed the First World War 1914-1918. “Voices of Conscience” is one of the Lancaster Roots 2018 events, which is sponsored by Lancaster Mennonite Historical Society and will be hosted at Landis Homes.

The exhibit will be held in the Crossings Meeting Room in the new Calvin G. and Janet C. High Learning and Wellness Center at Landis Homes. It will be on display from August 19 to September 26, from 2 p.m. to 7 p.m. daily, with other hours by appointment. There will be an opening reception at 2 p.m. on August 19 in the High Foundation Auditorium at Landis Homes.

A series of educational meetings will be held alongside the exhibit, focusing on conscientious objection to war. For more information visit: lmhs.org/events/voices-of-conscience.
