

Landis Homes Residential Living Reopening Plan

Revised: August 25, 2021

This document provides an overview of the reopening plan for Landis Homes Residential Living. Changes to this document from the July 14 version are in bold.

In order to best guide those living in Residential Living areas of Landis Homes, a group of team members continues to meet to discuss how to understand and adapt to the changes related to COVID-19 in our surrounding community. Throughout the pandemic, we have looked to the county positivity rate to frame decisions. Using this metric has helped determine potential risk to residents. We are also considering the high vaccination rate among residents in RL. Because of this important factor, we plan to continue offering opportunities for residents to choose activities that are meaningful and life giving both here at Landis Homes and also in the community. We welcome each of you to make decisions on if you will participate with consideration for your personal safety and comfort level. We continue to ask that all residents, visitors and team members wear a face covering when indoors regardless of vaccination status. The team will continue to meet and keep a watchful eye on COVID-19. If we would have an outbreak or begin to see resident to resident transmission, we will re-evaluate things such as visitation, activities and so forth. At this time, we are not seeing any such spread among the residents in Residential Living. For this we are grateful.
